Montana Has Good Snowfall.

David H. Nelson is back from his Montana wheat property with word that a good snow has fallen there, which penetrated the ground to a good depth and makes prospects for the coming year look better already. The 1919 season was not a success owing to the water shortage and improper handling of the irrigation system, according to the farmers. When water was scarce, Mr. Nelson says, whole divisions of water were practiced.

And He Plays Such Loafy Tunes

A man was brought into court recently under the new antiloafing law. The Judge looked at him for a moment and then asked:

"What is your occupation?"

"I am a musician, your honor," was the reply.

"In that case I'll have to find you guilty of loafing."

"But, your honor," protested the man, "I'm regularly employed by the Methodist church as an organist."

"That only confirms my opinion," said the Judge. "The law requires every man to work, but your occupation requires you to play."—Cartoon Magazine.
